

Empowering Education:

Real Communities. Real-Time Data. Real Impact.

Who We Are

At Datalytix, we believe education is about communities, not just schools. As a Maryland-based, woman-owned data and AI firm, we support the entire education ecosystem—engaging educators, parents, first responders, transportation leaders, and more.

Holistic Engagement, Not Siloed Support

Datalytix breaks down silos, driving collaboration across the education landscape. From aligning school safety with emergency response to improving transportation with GIS and AI, we deliver smart, sustainable, human-centered solutions with every stakeholder at the table.

Let's Build the Future of Education Together

Datalytix strengthens the entire education ecosystem with smart tech, community-driven solutions, and data at the core. From safety to infrastructure to advanced analytics, we help you grow smarter.

Together, let's build safer, stronger, more connected learning.
